Instructor's profile

With over 20 years of experience in Early Childhood Education, Aiko brings deep knowledge of child development, play-based learning, and supportive classroom practice. They currently serve as the manager of a licensed group child care program, where they lead educators, guide families, and ensure high-quality, developmentally appropriate environments for children.

In addition to her professional ECE background, she is also an active taiko drummer, bringing the energy, rhythm, and cultural richness of Japanese drumming into their teaching. This unique combination of ECE expertise, program leadership, and Japanese cultural arts creates a learning experience that is joyful, engaging, and culturally grounded.

KJLS is excited to offer this new program! This program is designed for young learners to explore Japanese language and culture and build foundational skills through interactive play.

Program Description:
JLL Kids is a junior program designed to introduce students to the Japanese language and culture through interactive, play-based learning in small-group settings. Students develop foundational skills in speaking, listening, reading, and cultural awareness while exploring themes such as numbers, family, food, and school life. The curriculum fosters confidence, curiosity, and communication, empowering children to use Japanese in meaningful, age-appropriate ways.
